

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFACE.

THE present Volume gives all the entries in the fifth and sixth Books of the Leeds Parish Church Registers. The leaves of the fifth Book measure 14×9 inches, and of the sixth Book $14\frac{3}{4} \times 9\frac{3}{4}$ inches, and both Books are of parchment.

Edward Smith, who succeeded Richard Fletcher as Parish Clerk in 1629, has apparently written the entries in both Books. He was the Registrar up to the time of his death, in December, 1669, when he was succeeded by his son, John Smith (Thoresby's Ducatus, p. 46).

The month and year have again been placed in the margin. The Baptismal entries have been rearranged, and the Marriages in the sixth Book have been shortened, as shown on page 330.

The period covered by the two Books (1639 to 1667) is one of special interest from a historical point of view. There are numerous entries connected with the Civil War and the Plague which followed. Attention is specially directed to the burials of officers and soldiers killed in the war, and of the persons who died of the plague, also to the notes written by the Clerk on passing events, and on the neglect of the curates of the chapelries to send in their returns.

The Marriage entries during the earlier part of the Commonwealth are signed by an alderman or magistrate; and it will be noticed that publication of the banns was occasionally made in the market-places of Leeds and other towns. Mr. R. E. Chester Waters' book on Parish Registers in England will be found most useful in explanation of the history and contents of Registers.

Sir Clement Markham's Life of the Great Lord Fairfax, and Mr. D. H. Atkinson's Old Leeds, give excellent accounts of the various events which took place in Leeds and the neighbourhood; and the following short Table of Dates, chronologically arranged, may be found of some use for the purpose of reference:—

November. Skirmish at Wetherby.

Dec. 6. Lord Fairfax defeated at Tadcaster by the Duke of Newcastle, who then occupied Pontefract.

„ 18 Bradford attacked by the Royalists (post p. 156).

1643.

January 7. Sir Thomas Fairfax entered Bradford.

„ 23. Leeds taken by Sir Thomas Fairfax (p. 157). The Duke of Newcastle retreated to York.

March 29. Skirmish at Seacroft (p. 160).

April 8. Siege of Leeds commenced by the Royalists (p. 160).

May 21. Wakefield surprised by Sir Thomas Fairfax, but shortly afterwards abandoned (p. 162).

June 30. Defeat of Lord Fairfax at Adwalton (p. 164).

July 2. Leeds, Bradford, &c., abandoned by Fairfax, and held by the Royalists (p. 164).

Sept. 2 to Oct. 11. Siege of Hull.

1644.

April —. Leeds taken by Sir Thomas Fairfax (p. 177).

„ 11. Selby stormed by Sir Thomas Fairfax.

„ 20. Siege of York by Fairfax and the Scots army.

July 2. Battle of Marston Moor.

„ 16. Surrender of York. Scots quartered at Leeds (pp. 177, 181).

August 7. Scots army left Leeds (p. 182).

1645.

March 11. Plague at Leeds (p. 191).

April —. Scots army at Leeds, and Major-General Carter military governor of the town (p. 191).

July 21. Surrender of Pontefract Castle.

1647.

Feb. 9. King Charles at Leeds on his way to Holmby (p. 199).

Many of the Notes are the result of an examination of the Calendars of State Papers.

The Baptisms and Marriages in the fifth Book were copied by Messrs. William Brigg, B.A., Samuel Denison, and Samuel Rusby. The Editor has copied the sixth Book and the Burials in the fifth Book.

The printed copy has been carefully collated with the Registers.

The Index has been almost entirely compiled by Mr. T. Wigglesworth.

To the present Vicar of Leeds, the Rev. Dr. Gibson, and to the late Vicar, the Lord Bishop of Rochester, the thanks of the Society are due for their kind permission to copy and publish the Registers, and to Mr. James Warren for facilitating the work of transcription.

(1) Sir Thomas was High Sheriff of Yorkshire & Charles I., and a colonel. He paid a composition of £4,780 for his loyalty to Charles I. He married Katherine, daughter of Christopher Wandsford, Lord Deputy of Ireland, and was father of Captain Thomas Danby, first mayor of Leeds, slain 1661. —(See pedigree, Thoresby's Ducatus, 2nd edition, p. 202.) The arms of Danby were "Argent, three chevrons brased in the base point of the escutcheon sable, on a chief of the second, three mullets of the first." The Danby chief and mullets were added to the arms of the Leeds Corporation when Captain Danby became, in 1661, its first mayor under the second Charter.

(1) Wilson states that the son "was designed for the law at Lincoln's Inn, but his genius was painting; that he published 'The Painter's Voyage of Italy,' 8vo., London, 1679, with cuts; and also wrote 'The Painter's Voyage, or an account of the famous paintings in England;' the MS. of which was in Thoresby's Museum. In 1747 his drawings were in the hands of Mr. Tho. Lodge, of Leeds, merchant."—Wilson's MS. Lodge was educated at Leeds, afterwards at Jesus College, Cambridge, and was noted chiefly as an engraver.—See Walpole's Anecdotes of Painting, p. 905.

(1) Lord Fairfax was defeated by the Earl of Newcastle at Adwalton, on Saturday, the 1st July, and retreated to Leeds. On Sunday night Leeds was abandoned by Fairfax, and on Monday the Royalist soldiers broke out of prison, possessed themselves of the magazine and arms, and held the town for the King.—Old Leeds, by an Old Leeds Cropper, pp. 117-18. The Royalists continued to hold the town until April, 1644.—See post, p. 177.

(2) Mr. Samuel Casson gave the undivided Moiety of a Farm called Mankland's Farm, at Brome-hill, of the Yearly Rent of £6 15s. 8d., to the Poor of the Town and Parish of Leedes. He also gave £100 for ever to be lent by the Alderman and Vicar to twenty poor Tradesmen, such as have Charge of Wife and Children, gratis, for one Year or longer, they giving good Security for the true Payment of the same again.—Thoresby's Ducatus Leodiensis, 2nd edition, p. 56. He was the Alderman of Leeds in 1627 and 1635.

(1) Arrears of pay and losses being due to Capt. Askwith, his widow Ellen obtained an Order in Parliament 9th May, 1646, that the Committee of Advance of Money should pay her the proceeds of moneys of sequestered delinquents discovered by her, not exceeding £1,000. On 6th July, 1646, an Order was made that Wm. Cooke (brother and heir of Ralph Cooke, of Barwick-in-Elmet, then dead, and brother of the said Ellen), paying £700 to Ellen Askwith, be acquitted against Sir Thomas Danby and Thomas Wood, mortgagees of lands in Leeds, late the property of the said Ralph Cooke; and that she keep for her own use £300, due by her husband to Ralph Crofts, and be saved harmless therein. October 8th, 1646.—Order in Parliament to pay her £1,000 from the composition fines of Viscount Savile for maintenance of herself and children, and for payment of £560 due for a troop of horse raised by her late husband, of which only £200 was paid, and the rest ordered from the estate of Savile who has compounded. On the 6th May, 1655, Ann Askwith, daughter and administratrix of Ellen Askwith, petitioned for redress on account of the tenants of the lands refusing to pay her their rents.—Calendar of the Committee for Advance of Money.

(1) July 10th, 1647.—Petition of Paul Freeman and others, of Leeds, clothiers, to the House of Commons. By direction of Lord Fairfax, their dwelling-houses were, for the greater safety of the town, burnt to the ground, and all they possessed destroyed. They have attended nine months, but have had no relief, being obliged to seek their bread from strangers, whilst their poor children are left in the country harbourless. They implore the House to consider their wretched condition, and grant them some present supply to enable them to return to their callings.—Historical MSS. Commission, vi., p. 188a; see Old Leeds, p. 162.

(1) George Banister was appointed Town Clerk 2nd November, 1661. By Deed dated 17th March, 1708, Mr. George Banister, of Northall Grange, Gentleman, gave the rents of a Farm of £6 per annum clear rent, at Sutton, near Ferrybridge, for a salary to an Organist when an organ should be first set up in the Parish Church of Leedes (to cost £250), or St. John's Church there (to cost £200). See Ducatus, p. 58. In accordance with the terms of the trust, the Organist of the Parish Church receives the income (still £6 per year), as an organ was opened there on Sunday, 14th August, 1714, before the one at St. John's. See also Royalist Composition Papers, Yorkshire Archaeological Society (Record Series), vol. xviii., p. 46.

(2) William Milner, of Leeds, merchant, married Ruth, daughter of Mr. John Belton. According to the pedigree (Thoresby's Ducatus, p. 216), Joseph Milner, their eldest son, was a merchant at Rotterdam, and married Anne, daughter of Smart Goodenough, Sheriff of Somersetshire, anno 1698.

(3) Henry Iveson, of Black-bank, near Leeds, Esq., Alderman of Leeds, and Mayor 1695 and 1709, High Sheriff for the County of York in 1708, died 3 August, 1713.

(1) Dr. John Lake was the son of Thomas Lake, of Halifax, where he was baptized December 5th, 1624. He was educated at Halifax Grammar School; B.A., St. John's College, Cambridge. He joined the King's army, and served in it as a Volunteer four years. In 1661, immediately after the Restoration, he was presented to the Vicarage of Leeds; but the Puritans, who desired to have a Mr. Bowles as Vicar, raised such opposition that at his induction he found the church doors barred against him, and soldiers had to be called in to secure his induction. The same year the degree of D.D. was conferred upon him by the University of Cambridge, by royal mandate. On the 22nd May, 1663, he was collated to St. Botolph's, Bishopgate. He was consecrated Bishop of Sodor and Man, 1682, translated to Bristol, August 12th, 1684, and from thence to Chichester in 1685. He was one of the Seven Bishops committed prisoners to the Tower, June 8th, 1688. He died August 30th, 1689.—See Thoresby's Vicaria Ledensis, and Rusby's History of the Leeds Parish Church, p. 44; Whitaker's Loidis and Elmet, p. 36; and the Dictionary of National Biography. On the 23rd October, 1661, Edward Copley wrote to Secretary Nicholas, that John Lake, Vicar of Leeds, Samuel Drake, Vicar of Pontefract, and John Milner, of Beeston, near Leeds, were losers and sufferers in the late King's cause. Mr. Lake was several times wounded in battle, and all were deprived of good benefices. Requests the King's mandate for them to take their B.D. degrees. Also requests for Lake and Drake the Prebends of Durham and Fenton, which Dr. Triplett intends to resign.—Calendar of State Papers (Domestic).

(1) John Armstrong, of March laine, and Mary Pease, of Quarie hill, were married at Leeds Parish Church, on the 10th July, 1650.

By deed dated the same day, John Pease, of Quarrell Hill, Leeds, Clothier (in consideration of a marriage already solemnized between John Armstronge, of Quarrell hill, and Mary, daughter of the said John Pease), gave to the said John Armstronge and Mary his wife, all those three dwelling-houses in Quarrell Hill, occupied by James Smyth, William Bolland, and William Sowden, subject to the yearly rent of twopence to the chief lords of the fee. Witnesses—Charles Taylor, William Smith, William Hinchlyffe, Bryan Kitchingman, William Mitchell, John Browne.

By deed dated 14th October, 1662, John Armstrong and Mary his wife conveyed the said three houses, then occupied by Marmaduke Goodrick, Walter Preston, and Thomas Waterston, to William Willson, of Leeds, clothier.—W. T. L.

(2) Mr. Thomas Idle, of Holbeck, gave £100 to be disposed of in lands towards the better maintenance of a preaching minister at Holbeck Chapel; or, if there be a vacancy for six months, to Armley Chapel.—Ducatus, p. 58.

 „ 8. Robert Goodlad, of Houlbecke, and Jane Reynar, of Wortley, by Mr. Armitage, at Houlbecke.

Those that come hereafter to search about Registering of Marriages from the 8 of June last untill this present 11 of October, 1659, may take notice that the persons married within that time tooke the liberty either to marry without publishing (as many did), or else they went to Mr Broone, Curate of the ould church, and got married there, and at several chappels in the parrish, without ever acquainting the Register or paying him his Dues; and therefore, if any occasion fall out to make search for such, they may judge who is to blame. These and many others before tooke the same liberty.

(1) Francis Allanson was twice the Alderman of Leeds under its first Charter, viz., in 1644-45, and 1657-58. During his second term of office he was instrumental in preventing a disturbance against the farmers of excise on ale, &c., a paper having been distributed inciting the apprentices, etc., of Leeds, to expel the excise officers from thence. On the 3rd June, 1658, an Order was made by the Council of State "to thank Allison; also that the High Sheriff of co. York, the 4 aldermen of Leeds, and Major Goodricke, examine the business about the paper, and who were the ringleaders, and take them into custody; also examine concerning one of the ministers there who is said to be disaffected, and certify the whole business." On the same day President Lawrence wrote to Mr. Allanson, that "Counsel hears from the Excise Commissioners of co. York, of your care in preventing the outrages threatened by the seditious crowds in and about Leeds, and in suppressing the imminent tumults, and desires to express their approval of your conduct, and their sense of your loyal care in the matter; they also empower you to examine into the same and endeavour to find the ringleaders, and inflict condign punishment on all offenders."—Calendar of State Papers (Domestic). Mr. Allanson was supported "by Mr. Todd's auditors, and such as are Wakefield men, and clothworkers," in opposition to Capt. Adam Baynes, on Baynes' second election as Member of Parliament for Leeds in 1656.—See Atkinson's Ralph Thoresby, his Town and Times, chap. i. Thoresby gives the inscription on a brass plate on his tomb as "Here lyeth buried the Body of Mr. Francis Allanson, of Kirkgate, the elder, late Alderman, who departed this Life 16th Jan., 1661. Statutum est omnibus semel mori."—Ducatus Leodiensis, p. 4.

(1) The Askwiths, Askquiths, or Asquiths, as they variously spelt their name, are, no doubt, all of one stock, and originally came from Askwith, high up on the northern hillside of Wharfedale, near Otley. The Norman clerk, to whom Anglo-Saxon was unknown, wrote it down in Domesday Book as Ascuide. The first known person of this name, probably the patriarch of the race, bore the appropriate name of Adam. A deed dated at Denton, 1291, by which William de Wycle conveyed the manor and lands in Askewth to Mauger le Vavasour, is witnessed by this Adam de Askewth, and his name stands before that of the Seneschal of Henry de Perci.—(Misc. Gen. et Her. II., 273). Adam, six years later, is found a well-to-do Yeoman at Westwick, near Borough-bridge.—(Yorkshire Record Series, xvi., 25). The only contemporary of Adam known was one Roger de Askwyth, who gave two houses in Skeldergate to the nuns of Appleton.—(Cal. Gen.). In the reign of Edward III. we have an eminent Scholar who has been identified as a Fellow of Merton College, Oxford—a Yorkshire worthy hitherto overlooked,—John Eschuid, who went to Italy and wrote a voluminous work on “Judicial Astrology,” which he completed, he tells us, in December, 1347. This was printed at Venice in 1489.—(Notes and Queries, 8th Series, viii., ix.).

The Poll Tax of 1379 gives us the next names:—a John de Askwith and his wife at Westwick, probably a grandson of Adam, and nephew of the writer; at Kirkby Malsard—two Johns, Hugh and his son Henry, and William de Askwith; at Thornton—William and John de Askwith. The name occurs nowhere else. Ingram Cote, in the parish of Kirkby Malsard, the last homestead in Nidderdale head, came down to Henry Askwith, of Newstead.

From this date they throve and multiplied in the dales, serving for generations as trusted servants and bailiffs of the Abbots of Fountains at Pot and other granges, intermarrying with the Horsemen and the Thackways.—(Walbran's Memorials of Fountains, i., 332). Just before the Reformation, which changed the old order of things, some of them got to York and prospered there in trade. Robert Askwith, twice Lord Mayor (in 1580 and 1593), and his brother Thomas, one of the sheriffs, were born at Pot Grange.—(M.I.). Being wealthy, some unscrupulous pedigreemonger persuaded most of them that they were really Ayscoughs, and the arms of that more distinguished family were adopted by them in consequence. In this disguise their pedigree may be seen in Dugdale's Visitation in 1605; but the very man who supplied this was buried at St. Cuthbert's, York, as William “Asquith,” M.D., 5th April, 1688. This pedigree cannot be trusted beyond the Lord Mayor's great-grandfather. The branch at Osgodby Grange in the Visitation of 1612 wrote themselves then Askwith, though afterwards Ayscough; those at Newstead Grange, Kilburn, Ripon, Roundhay, and elsewhere did not.

As to any original arms of this family, we have in Robson's British Herald—Askwith, Askquith, or Asquith (co. York), Sable, a fess between 3 cross crosslets argent. Crest: a masle gules. The only authority which I can find for the arms is Harleian MS., 1487, folio 147; but Glover's own MS. of this Visitation of Yorkshire in 1585 (Harleian MS., 1394), gives the Ayscough coat.

This crest is interesting, for a masle was used by the Fawkes of Farnley as a coat of arms; and William Fawkes, of Newhall, witnessed the deed of William de Wycle mentioned above, following Adam de Askwith.

I have reason to believe John Askwith, of Bramley, was of the Newstead branch; and Ralph Askwith, of Leeds, connected with those of York. For some printed notes of wills, and a woodcut of Alderman Askwith's brass in St. Crux, York, see Fisher's History of Masham.

It would be a waste of labour for anyone to collect materials about the name generally, as it has already been done by A. S. ELLIS.
